The Honorable Doug Barnard, Jr.
Chairman
Subcommittee on Commerce, Consumer, and Monetary Affairs
Committee on Government Operations
House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your June 18, 1985, request, we are supplementing certain brokered deposit data, previously provided to you in a fact sheet entitled Information on the Extent of Fully Insured Brokered Deposits in FDIC-Insured Institutions, GAO/GGD-86-15FS, dated October 29, 1985. As you know, at that time the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) had denied our request for bank ratings, preventing us from fully responding to your request. FDIC has recently provided us with sufficient bank rating information to complete your request. Thus, enclosed is the requested analysis based on the newly received bank rating data from FDIC.

In the original fact sheet, we provided aggregate figures for all national and state chartered FDIC-insured institutions. Breakdowns by ratings were provided only for national banks. We were able to obtain national bank data by using bank ratings supplied by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), which supervises only national banks. FDIC, however, maintains its own list of bank ratings for all FDIC-insured institutions. Because FDIC's ratings for some national banks differs from OCC's, the data presented here cannot be compared to previously presented figures in regard to the national bank data. Thus, it would be inappropriate to subtract national bank data in our original fact sheet from the data presented here to identify the extent of brokered deposits in state chartered institutions.

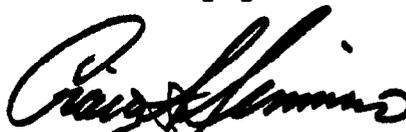

The brokered deposit data presented (except for response 1.c.) are based on the monthly brokered deposit reports for March 31 and June 30, 1985, filed with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) pursuant to the reporting requirements established in 12 CFR 304.4, Reporting Requirements on Deposits Placed by Deposit Brokers and Depository Institutions. The data provided in response 1.c. are based on March 31, 1985, Consolidated Reports of Condition and Income (Call reports) submitted by the same institutions which reported brokered deposits as of March 31. The data provided in response 3 is a comparison of figures from the two sources.

As you requested, all responses pertain only to those institutions reporting fully insured brokered deposits (not including fully insured deposits placed directly by depository institutions) equal to or greater than 5 percent of total deposits as of either the March 31 and/or June 30, 1985, brokered deposit reports. Three institutions which met your brokered deposit selection criteria were not included in responses 1.c. and 3. These institutions are domestic branches of foreign banks or they are savings banks chartered by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board, neither of which are required to file Call reports.

As you requested, the data are broken out between institutions rated 1 or 2, versus those rated 3, 4, or 5 on the CAMEL scale. The latter set of institutions are those categorized as troubled and problem institutions by the regulators. Data for eight institutions, which had not yet been rated because of recent chartering, are included with those for the institutions rated 1 or 2.

As arranged with your office, copies of this document are being provided to FDIC, OCC, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council. Copies will also be available to other interested parties who request them. If you have any questions regarding the attached figures, I can be reached on 275-8678.

Sincerely yours,

Craig A. Simmons
Associate Director
